

COMPLIMENTARY STAGING

Take advantage of our talented in-house interior designer and experienced staging consultant. She will work with you to assess your home's needs and determine the most optimal presentation for your home, whether minimally rearranging your own furniture and accessories or completely staging with our complimentary furniture.

When staging, we work alongside professional moving services every step of the way to ensure a smooth and secure process.

Planning on doing renovations before selling your home? Our designer's complimentary services include space planning and finish selection assistance. Whether you have questions about paint colors or new cabinets, she is sure to be an asset.
